
*Dublin-Laurens
Arts Council*

Fall, 2014

Volume 1, Number 2

2014-2015 Schedule

Sunday, Oct. 19

3p.m.

Santiago Valencia, cellist
Edward Eikner, pianist

Thursday, Nov. 6

7:30 p.m.

SAXsational

Star Educational Outreach *

Tuesday, Feb. 3

7:30 p.m.

Al Simmons

One-man Variety Act

Also:

- Honor Band
- Atlanta Opera Co. .
production

Programs presented at Theatre Dublin

Allegro!

www.facebook.com/DublinLaurensArts

Here's an idea....

The Dublin-Laurens Arts Council can help you with Christmas shopping! Why not honor that hard-to-shop-for friend with a donation to the Arts Council? Still another option is a memorial donation to the Arts Council to create a lasting tribute to a friend or loved one. These are tax deductible donations as to a charitable organization. Checks should be made out to the Dublin-Laurens Arts Council, marked specifically as donations, and sent with complete information for acknowledgement to Michael Thigpen, P.O. Box 776, Dublin, GA 31040.

What's new?

Adding spice to today's cello/piano concert is the pre-performance talk by Mary Crowson. Her discussion of the composers and the circumstances surrounding their compositions will enhance the audience's enjoyment of the music.

Next up....

SAXsational, a British saxophone quartet, brings its unique, jazzy sound to Dublin on November 6. The group's music ranges from jazz to classical and includes variety of favorites ranging from "Ain't Misbehavin'" to Pachelbel's "Canon in D."

Music and comedy

Al Simmons has been called a one-man cast of thousands. He will present his multi-prop, music-filled variety show here February 3.

Simmons is Canada's most versatile comedian.

And don't forget Crescendo – a Valentine's evening treat!