Welcome to the Dublin-Laurens Arts Council’s 2015-16 season!

Your ticket to tonight’s concert includes admission to all the performances in the list on the left. All except the March Musicale will be presented at Theatre Dublin.

Our gift to our community

The Dublin-Laurens Arts Council is offering several performances that are free and open to the public to enhance this year’s subscription season. “Brass in Blue” in August was a hit! “A March Musicale” will be a free Sunday afternoon concert 2:00 p.m. March 6, at Pine Forest United Methodist Church. Watch for information on additional free events.

Music scholarship

Did you notice the donation box in the lobby? Last spring, DLAC held its first Young Artists Scholarship competition. What you drop into the box tonight will help fund this year’s scholarships. Generous community donations provided 2015 scholarships to five local youths who performed for guest judges. Soon, we begin planning the 2016 scholarship competition. You also can help make it a success by mailing your tax-deductible donation check earmarked for the Young Artists Scholarship to the Dublin-Laurens Arts Council, P.O. Box 776, Dublin 31040.

More concerts in Sandersville

Membership in the Dublin-Laurens Arts Council also entitles you to attend the concerts of the Washington County Concert Association in Sandersville. Their schedule includes “Hits and Grins,” a music and comedy show, Sept. 29; the Manhattan Music Ensemble, classical trumpet and piano, Nov. 17; Bandstand Boogie, a vocal pop band, March 6.

Grants awarded to DLAC

DLAC has been the recipient recently of two grant awards – one from Oconee EMC, the other from Plum Creek Timber Company. Support such as this helps your Arts Council provide the quality of programs you enjoy.

Enjoy the show and don't forget the donation box!
